Dear Friends of Second Church,

I am delighted to introduce Khaleigh Laicher, who has accepted a new position here at 2CC as the Director of Regional Youth Ministry, which we will share with our friends at First Congregational Church of Old Greenwich (and soon, we hope, with many other UCC congregations and community partners in our area).

Khaleigh will oversee youth groups, from 6-12th grade (shared between the two founding churches) plan fellowship and service opportunities (including summer mission experiences) and much else.

She comes to us from First Congregational Church of Longmeadow, MA after an eight month, national search.

Her arrival will bless us in many ways.

First, her love of young people and deep authenticity as a person are animated by her faith in the love of God for all people. In every conversation, she conveys warmth and acceptance, but also realness that welcomes genuine response.

Second, she will work with our pre-teens and teens to build community just at the age when some of life's big questions loom largest, but when young people's time and energy are most spoken for, especially in a busy place like Greenwich.

Helping them to develop a space that offers them perspective on — and some degree of shelter from — the vicissitudes of life's journey, as well as a way for them to listen for whom God is calling them to be, for as we know, our world has no shortage of opinions and expectations with regard to such questions.

A native of Texas who first sought baptism and spiritual formation in church as a teenager, Khaleigh has pursued a call to youth ministry in many forms since the time she was an "active youth" herself in the ministries of her home church. This has continued in more formal roles since she moved to New England to begin college at American International College in Springfield, MA, both in congregations as well as the Silver Lake Conference Center, the UCC's summer camp in northwestern Connecticut.

She and her wife, Julianna (please call her Julie) are living in the 3rd Floor of Mead House with their animal children.

Below, you'll see an invitation for those in Grades 6-12 to meet up this coming Sunday afternoon at Chipotle. If your young person would like to go but needs transportation, please email me, and we will figure out a way to get them there.

In the meantime, please be sure to welcome Khaleigh and Julie as you see them on campus and around town.

See you in church,

Max
